

Win Cash Prizes
Classes and Groups are Eligible for Additional Prizes

Howard Adler, 2009
winner, 19-29 age category
Lac des Mille Lacs First Nation, ON

Trevor Jang, 2009
winner, 14-18 age category
Wet'suwet'en First Nation, BC

The 2010 Canadian ABORIGINAL WRITING Challenge

A Project of the Historica-Dominion Institute

Are you between the ages of 14-18 or 19-29?

Send us your short story
and showcase your heritage.

WHAT STORY WILL YOU TELL?

www.our-story.ca

Call 1-866-701-1867. DEADLINE IS MARCH 31, 2010.

Supporting Sponsors:

Making a Difference

Canada Council
for the Arts

Media Sponsors:

Please see above for the 2010 Canadian Aboriginal Writing Challenge, presented by Edbridge Inc. The Challenge is a national short story competition for Aboriginal youth ages 14-18 and 19-29.

Participants of Aboriginal heritage (First Nations, Inuit or Metis) are invited to write a short story about a defining moment or event in Aboriginal history. Winners are selected from two age categories and receive cash prizes of up to $2,000.00 and their story published in The Beaver Magazine!

Groups of 10 or more are eligible for additional prizes, and group entries will be highlighted on the Our Story website (our-story.ca).

This year's contest deadline is March 31, 2010 and full guidelines are available on the website www.our-story.ca