

Nepisiguit Family Services Inc.

Presents a TRAINING SESSSION on a comprehensive and holistic approach to violence prevention to the Aboriginal Community as well as to all service providers who work with victims of family violence, particularly women and children

With NATALIE MCBRIDE, Executive Director of Gignoo Transition House

On Monday April 11th from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Atlantic Host – Salon C

Registration is required and space is limited • Session will be in English
Free of Charge including a break and a lunch

To register or for more information, please contact the Nepisiguit Family Services office at 506-546-3305 or by e-mail at: famille@nb.aibn.com by providing your name, address and phone number.

Activity financed by the Department of Justice Canada as part of the National Victims of Crime Awareness Week from April 10-16, 2011

SERVICES À LA FAMILLE
NÉPISIGUIT
FAMILY SERVICES INC.

Government of Canada
Gouvernement du Canada