

St. Thomas University Gesgapegiag First Nation
and Tobique First Nation

are pleased to announce the following course to be offered this term:

NATI 4143 Methods in Immersion Teaching

Where: St. Mary's First Nation, Post-Secondary Education Department, 3rd Floor

When April 17-18, May 15-16 & June 5-6
Saturday 9AM to 5PM
Sundays 8AM to 3PM

Instructor: Dorothy Lazore, founder of Native language immersion programs in Canada

This course is one of thirteen credit courses in the Native Language Immersion Teacher Training Certificate Program offered by St. Thomas University, but it is open to anyone interested in teaching in the medium of their mother-tongue.

Course is tuition-free for students from sponsoring First Nations.

If interested in taking this course please contact your Education Director

Or Andrea Bear Nicholas, Chair in Native Studies at STU
506-452-0429