

This is a great chance for your students to EXPRESS THEMSELVES, BE CREATIVE and GET THEIR ART RECOGNIZED!

EVOKE: Uncover your human rights perspective

TakingITGlobal, in partnership with the Canadian Museum for Human Rights is launching a nationwide, online, multi-disciplinary contest for human rights expression! We are asking Canadian youth aged 13 - 25 for their perspective on a human rights issue that is important to them. Upload an artistic video or digital image of any creative visual art form, including, but not limited to painting, sculpture or photography.

You can reflect on the past, present, or even think of potential issues for the future. Submissions can be made in French or English. The contest will run from March 15, 2010 to May 14, 2010

Winners to be selected from each province and territory will travel to Winnipeg during the summer of 2010 to have their art exhibited in front of thousands of people at a ceremony for the Canadian Museum for Human Rights!

Spread the word and encourage students to submit their art online!

You can also facilitate a discussion group that helps students get inspired, get connected with other human rights perspectives and make an artistic statement. TakingITGlobal will provide you with a guide to be used in conjunction with contest participation.

For contest details or to learn more visit www.evokeart.ca and help uncover the human rights perspectives of your students today!

For more information, including full contest details for all rules and eligibility requirements, please email us at evoke@takingitglobal.org.

